142 Days of Equality

During the run of The Marriage Bed, Diversionary is displaying Belá Dornan's 142 Days of Equality (www.142days.com), which features pictures of same-sex couples who married during the 142 days when it was legal to get married in California. We invite the community to drop off or email us your wedding day picture which we will display in conjunction with Belá's display. Any photos submitted will not be returned. Please label your picture with your first names (left, right, top, bottom, etc.) and date of your marriage. Drop off at the theatre, or email to boxoffice@diversionary.org – please put "photo for lobby display" in the subject line.

Financial support for Diversionary Theatre is provided in part by the City of San Diego Commission for Arts and Culture.
